Odd Postoffice Names.

Kentucky is said to hold the record of all the States in the Union for towns with odd and unusual names, and judging from some of these names, which were discovered by the stenographers at the democratic State campaign headquarters this record seems to be well established and deserved. One of the stenographers, as he came to an unusual name, would write it down and the resulting list was something that one seldom sees and would hardly be believed, yet the official gazetteer of the postoffice gives the names and is the authority cited. During the campaign letters were sent to persons in every one of the towns which are on the list.

Iden, which is in Butler county, should properly come first in the list of towns, and immediately after it would logically come Adam, which is in Lawrence county. Eve is in Greene county and is a promising place, although small. Cain's store is in Pulaski, and this is the first mention of the way in which the first born to woman earned his livelihood after the ejection from the garden. Abel, the second born, is in Laurel county. So much for the beginning. Having gotten fairly started in the list, the following curious connection in names is to be noticed.

Happiness is peculiarly connected with some of the towns, at least as far as the names go, even if the connections do not go further. One ought certainly to be happy in Bliss, which is in Adair county, or in Joy, in Livingston county, and one certainly would not be sad if he lived in Jolly, Daviess county. On the other hand, one would not derive much pleasure from existing in a town which travels under the name of Blood. Blood is in Calloway county, and is said to be an exceedingly peaceable little city.

Caution, Clay county, may possibly be well named if that county's reputation that it was best to proceed circum-spectly be correct. The inhabitants of Angel, Whitley county, should certainly have good dispositions as well as those who live in Bain, Logan county, or Sugar, Calloway county. Sweet, in Bath county, is another town which ought to be productive of good living. In contrast with these comes Lee, in Letcher county, and Snow, in Clinton county. These two places are not in it with Summer Shade, which is in Metcalfe county, as that is a tolerably warm place. Pump, in Morgan county, has its opposite in Poverty, which is in McLean county. The man who named Alton, in Metcalfe county, must have been tired and lonesome when he fixed this sad name to it.

Awk, in Lewis county, suggests a subdued feeling, while Faith, in McLean county, and Hope, in Montgomery county, give one a sense of rest and confidence. If one does not get all one wants there, one can still go to Bain, in Fleming county, and there find relief. Cash, in Hardin county, and Cain in Pulaski county, suggest wealth, although they are not now towns in which capitalists reside. Coy, in Marshall county, and Cyclone, in Monroe county, reach the opposite extreme, while Jamboree, Pike county, certainly suggests a hilarious time. The following are some of the other names which are out of the ordinary.

Alpha, Clinton county; Backbone, in Elliott county; Bar, Henry county; Barefoot, Nicholas county; Bel, Carter county; Blaze, Morgan county; Bruin, Elliott county; Bud, Wayne county; Bug, Hickman county; Buzzard, Pulaski county; Bush, Laurel county; Nancy, Pulaski county; Choice, Clay county; Coal, Johnson county; Doorway, One-way county; Firebrick, Lewis county; Sideview, Montgomery county; Pod, Floyd county; Freedom, Warren county; Stop, Grayson county; Walt, Wayne county, and O. K. and Jumbo, Lincoln county.

PERILS OF LAND AND SEA.

Capt. Willnef's Remarkable Escape shows what to do in time of Trouble.

For many years Capt. Willnef, says the Times, of Gloucester, Mass., was one of the best known seamen in the Gloucester Fleet. The catastrophic troubles which he suffered for 15 years made him dread the nights at sea being unable to be down and sleep on account of the constant external dropping.

Captain Willnef went to different hospitals for treatment, but could get no lasting benefit. He constantly raised yellow and green phlegm and his trouble became so unbearable and nauseating that he was ashamed to go out in company. When despairing of ever getting relief, his wife purchased a Hyomel outfit for him, and trying it before going to bed, he enjoyed the first whole night's sleep for 10 years. Capt. Willnef says, "I have used less than two bottles of Hyomel and have been cured by the remedy." Hyomel kills the germs of catarrh and cures lasting and permanent cures. Penny sells Hyomel under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give quick relief.

To The Democracy of Lincoln County.

A short time after Isaac Herrin announced as a candidate for re-election to the office of jailer, I stated through the newspapers that he had agreed with me in 1901 that if I would not make a contest against him for the nomination, which I was about to do, and support him, that he would not run for office the second time, but would support me. In his published reply to this statement he admitted that he had agreed not to run, but claimed that the conditions of the agreement were different from what I had stated and that I had failed to comply with them. I am reliably informed that he has since died on several occasions that he ever made an agreement of any kind. To settle the dispute between us as to whether or not an agreement was made and also the terms of it, I submit the following statement of three disinterested witnesses:

"On the 19th day of June, 1901, we heard the following agreement between Isaac Herrin and Dink Farmer, both of whom claimed to be the nominee for jailer. It was agreed that Farmer should make no further claim for the nomination and would help Herrin in his race, and that Herrin would not run for the office the second time, but would be for Farmer and help in his race. James C. Reid, Gus McCormack, M. S. Baughman."

The following statements show that I complied with my part of the contract. "We, the undersigned voters of Lincoln county, certify that Dink Farmer urged us to vote for Isaac Herrin at the November election, 1901: J. M. Pettus, W. G. Raines, W. G. Adams, Henry Kittle, J. T. Munday, C. W. Raines, W. J. Kirkpatrick, E. Brackett Isaac Brackett, Thomas F. Hall."

And also the following: "Dink Farmer and I rode through Lincoln county together several days before the November election, 1901, electioneering for the democratic ticket. During that time I heard him ask a great many men to vote for Isaac Herrin for jailer. Jan. Haras."

As I stated in my former card, I counted the ballots on the day they were destroyed as the law requires, in the presence of the chairman of the county committee, and also of John Papples and my son, Wallace Farmer, and there was a majority of seven votes in my favor, when shown that my claim to the nomination in 1901 was just. A mistake was made by some of the election officers in making the count on the day of the election.

I understand Mr. Herrin has said he will give a $100 reward if any one will find a paper signed by him agreeing not to run. I have never said he signed a paper, but if he will go before some officer and swear that he did not agree verbally not to run, I will withdraw from the race. DINK FARMER.

Democrats, Friends And Co-Workers.

I haven't been able to get to talk to you on account of illness, therefore I use this method of addressing you. I sincerely hope you will stand by my son, J. C. Lyon, in the democratic primary of Dec. 3rd. A vote for George W. DeFord for sheriff means a vote for my son and I trust that you will help him in this race. When you hear him him you befriend me, for true parents think more about their children's welfare than they do their own. I trust that you will be as true to him as I have been to the democratic party, the party that I love so well and which I believe the great common people of the country can derive the most benefit from. I am sure I will feel very grateful to you for your support of Mr. DeFord for sheriff and at the same time it will help my son, Jesse. Come out and help him get the half loaf he is striving to attain next Saturday, Dec. 3rd. Sincerely yours, J. E. LYNN.

To the Democratic Voters of Lincoln County.

I see in Tuesday's issue of the INTERIOR JOURNAL that Mr. Wood comes out in a card stating that he and Mr. McCormack have formed a combine for the assessment of the county to vote for them. He further states that all of his opponents have appointed deputies. I wish to say that that statement is utterly false. I have appointed no deputies, formed no combinations with any one, nor do I expect to. I also understand that another of my opponents is making an appeal to secret societies, such as the Odd Fellows, Maizebears, etc., claiming their support because he is a member. Now these organizations are all right and do a vast amount of good and I am heartily in sympathy with them and appeal to them and all good people on my own merits, upon which I expect to stand or fall. Whether successful or unsuccessful in this election, I shall always feel grateful to all those who have encouraged and supported me in this election. I can't think the democrats of this county will support a combine when one of the cardinal principles of the democratic party is opposition to trusts and combines. Respt. D. C. ALLEN.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

In an interview sent out from Washington, discussing the proposed republican plan to reduce the South's representation, Senator McCreary said: "I do not believe there will be any such legislation. In my opinion it can not be pushed through both branches of Congress. There are many republicans who will oppose this kind of legislation. President Roosevelt has announced he will not be a candidate again. He is in a situation to uphold a pacificatory policy. After his great majorities in so many States, why should he not desire to be respected by all the people and give the whole country an administration which will be remembered with pleasure and admiration, not only to the North, but to the South."

THE Hanover Herald, published at Ashland, Va., says: "The Hanover circuit court, which convened Monday, continued in session until Wednesday evening. Judge Mason presided and heard one civil and several chancery cases, but no criminal case was presented." It frequently occurs that there are no criminal cases on the docket and there is rarely a prisoner in jail. The editor of this paper takes a little pride in stating that he first saw daylight in the good old county of Hanover, but claims no credit for the good state of affairs now existing there.

It seems strange that in a country like this such precautions should have been taken to protect his highness, Roosevelt. His trip to St. Louis was a spectacular event. The Pennsylvania railroad furnished him the finest coaches ever sent over the road. A pilot plane was sent ahead and a track walker for every mile of track to insure safety. This reads like the description of the trips the Czar of Russia occasionally makes in going about from place to place among his interesting and beloved subjects.

EDITOR ALDRIGHT, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, who was here Friday, showed himself to be a man of parts by running his engine while the last issue was being printed. A friend in need is a friend indeed and Brer. Aldright proved himself to be of that class.

DISHEARTENED democrats should remember that in 1840 and in 1872 the democratic defeat was worse than this year. And at the next election they swept the country. Keep this in mind and take fresh courage.

LEGISLATION is threatened to prohibit football playing in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin, says a dispatch. The Kentucky Legislature should follow suit and call an extrasession to do so.

The contest of D. C. Edwards against Dr. W. Gudfrey Hunter will be decided during the coming session of Congress. If Mr. Edwards should win he will get full salary for the two years, which will amount to $10,000.

A St. Louis dispatch says: Wm. J. Tyndall, the new school teacher Congressman-elect from the 11th Missouri district, made his first trip to the city to-day and rode in an elevator for the first time. Mr. Tyndall falls from the so-called backwoods.

Friends of Senator Charles W. Fairbanks are organizing a movement in Indiana to push him for the republican Presidential nomination in 1908. Later on they expect to form an organization in the East and South with a view to promoting his candidacy.

Official returns from all except two counties have been received at Frankfort. The missing counties are Harrison and Rockcastle. Taking the unofficial returns from those counties, the democratic plurality in Kentucky at the recent election was 11,776. The total vote was 428,724, a decrease of over 40,000 votes from the total cast for president in 1900.

To the Democrats of Lincoln County.

My fellow democrats we have come to the parting of the ways and are now confronted by a situation of serious moment to our party. To my mind we have the interest and welfare of the party arrayed against the interests of a hydra-headed combination organized to drive from the field of politics individual competition and men of merit. The question for you is, will you as democrats endorse and encourage such a base scheme to secure a nomination at your hands, a scheme designed and formed to crush out individual competition and thrust upon you for your nominee one whose very conduct in this connection conclusively establishes his weakness and incapacity to win on his merits. Upon the same principle and for the same purpose every combination ever devised and that have been so boldly declared against by the democratic party and so vehemently denounced by its exponents rests and were formed, will you support them by your votes and denounce them with your voice? Will you for a moment tolerate such an enticing effort to secure a nomination from a party dedicated first and foremost to fair play and individual competition and a party that found its birth in opposition to combinations, trusts and monopolies?

Am afraid some of my opponents have lost sight of the goal race and have become blinded to the interests of the party and are now seeking their promotion at the expense of the party. Heaven forbid that I should in this heated atmosphere of combinations and rumors of combinations, become so blinded to the interest of my party as to be willing to slap in the face its favored and time-honored doctrine "of unalterable opposition to combination of every kind and nature that tend to crush out individual competition." This I assure you, my fellow democrats, I have never condescended to consider. I entered this race for the nomination of our party for the office of sheriff, with the intention to run it through on my merits alone and I have conducted it thus, far strictly in accordance with such intention and I shall do so to the end, let the consequences be what they may. I have never suggested or even hinted at a combination with any of my opponents. Can those of them who have not combined already say as much? I submit this to you as the views of a democrat whose personal interest is subordinate to that of his party and appeal to all good democrats of the county, especially the young ones, to rise in their power and might and stamp this young hydra-headed combination with disapproval and undemocratic. Having confidence in the integrity, justice, fairness and honor of the democrats of Lincoln county I believe they will condemn this unfair and over reaching effort of some of my opponents to defeat me and will unite with me as the strongest and most available man in the race to win the nomination for sheriff at our primary next Saturday. Yours for democracy, T. J. BILL.

Owing to the busy season in our Jewelry Store I will have to discontinue my visits to Stanford until Spring.

Headaches, granulated lids, styes, pain in and around the eyes, nervousness, etc., are often the results of eye strains. We straighten crossed eyes without the knife, scissors or pain. We use no medicine in examination or treatment of the eyes, nor do we perform any surgical operation.

Results Comit—Dr. Murray fitted glasses for me that have given most perfect satisfaction, more than any I ever had. The glasses fitted for my aunt, Mrs. Duddern, of McKinney, are also perfectly satisfactory.

Lanona Gentry, Stanford, Ky.

The glasses you fitted for me two years ago have given me better satisfaction than any I ever had on my eyes.

A LANCASTER special says that Mrs. Fannie Ball, who died at Hubble, mention of which was made last issue, left no living relative. She left a good farm of about 80 acres, which lawyers say will go to the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
DISCHARGED.—Charles McKinney, who killed Arthur Morgan on Fishing Creek, near Waynesburg, particulars of which were given last issue, was tried before Judge Bailey Saturday and discharged, it being clearly proven that the killing was accidental.
IF you would spend this evening pleasantly and profitably you will hear Dr. James S. Kirtley's lecture at Odd Fellows' Hall. He is one of the very best lecturers on the platform and Rev. O. M. Hoey, who knows him personally, says that he is as good a man as he is a lecturer.
IT speaks well for Lincoln county that Mr. J. M. Alverson, who so ably represented Lincoln's interests at the last session of the Legislature and who performed such valuable service to the State by securing the passage of the Alverson vagrancy law and the Alverson Bill against the flourishing of pickpockets on railway trains, should be nominated without opposition for Representative in the next House. It is well for Lincoln that he is nominated by a unanimous vote. The State as well as the county has need of such men.—Louisville Times editorial.

THIS is Soap week at W. H. Higgins.

J. L. COFFEY won the pony raffle off by Mark Hardin.

DEPUTY SHERIFF D. W. JOHNSON, of Letcher county, was here yesterday to take Ben Mullins, who has been in jail here, to that county for trial for the murder of Ebert Mullins.
LEG. BROKEN.—Walter W. Saunders fell the other night, shattering the bone of his injured leg. The accident was a very painful one and will likely give him much trouble.
FARM SOLD.—Albert Gough sold his farm of 64 acres in the Tonnerville section, to Frank Martin. Price private. Mr. Gough is undecided as to where he will locate, but we hope he and his family will not leave Lincoln.

The new democratic county committee met yesterday and elected James F. Holdam chairman and W. H. Shanks secretary. Three of the committee were absent. Both gentlemen have served before and their re-election proves that they have performed their thankless duties in a satisfactory manner.
TO MY FRIENDS AND DEMOCRATS GENERALLY.—I have withdrawn from the race for sheriff to take a position as deputy under Mr. George DeBord in the event of his nomination and election. Hence a vote for him will be a vote for me, and I earnestly ask my friends to cast their votes for him for sheriff. J. C. Lynn.
TO MY FRIENDS AND VOTERS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.—As my opponents have appointed deputies, and knowing that no one man can do the work, I have gone in with Mr. Emmett McCormack to win, and divide the office of assessor equally with him. A vote for him means a vote for me and it will be appreciated by both of us. If elected we will in person take your list. G. T. Wood.
MISS MARGARET LEWIS is preparing to give a delightful entertainment, very probably on the evening of Dec. 19th. She and her music class will be assisted by Mr. Henry Saxton, of Lexington, who is a virtuoso on the guitar, violin and cornet. Besides an interesting program of music on stringed instruments, a beautiful play will be given to be followed by the laughable sketch, "The Old Maid's Tea Party." Tickets will be sold by a number of little girls and you should by all means buy one for yourself and one or more for your sweetheart or friends.

HUBBLE NOMINATED.—The Committee for this Senatorial district, composed of Boyle, Garrard, Casey and Lincoln counties, met here Saturday and nominated Mr. R. L. Hobbie for State Senator. The gentlemen present were Messrs. R. G. Evans, of Danville, Chas. F. Montgomery, of Liberty, and James F. Holdam, of this county. For some reason W. G. Gough, of Garrard, was not present. After the nomination was made, the gentlemen repaired to the St. Asaph Hotel, where Mr. Hobbie did the honors handsomely. The nominee is one of Lincoln county's wealthiest and best citizens and is a democrat in all the world implies. He has proven himself a decided success as a farmer and trader and we shall be disappointed if he does not make his mark as a politician and statesman. That he will win in the final election we have no doubt, because when "Took" goes in to who he generally does so.

It looks now like we are to have rain at last. Let us all join in wishing for a good downpour.
My selection of solid gold jewelry, such as brooches, cuff buttons, lockets, rings, etc., must be seen to be appreciated. W. H. Mueller.
DON'T forget the exchange that the ladies of Fairview church will hold in the little room next to M. D. Elmore's store, next Friday, Dec. 23.
AN apology is hereby made for giving so much of this issue to candidates' cards. We trust the card-writing stage of this campaign will end with this issue.
POSSUM SUPPER.—About 35 of the young men of the town enjoyed a 'possum supper at J. T. Jones' restaurant last night. It was a very enjoyable affair.
THE report that the springs at the water works had about exhausted is a false one, we are glad to say. Water will be turned on in the early morning and late afternoon as usual.
THE democratic county committee of Garrard elected Anderson Bolling, of Bryanville, chairman, and Dr. Bright Swinebroad, of Lancaster, secretary. Good selections, both of them.
I WILL have no pets in the collection of taxes. If you wait until December 1st to get your tax receipt the six percent will be added, it matters not who you are. M. S. Baughman, sheriff.

WE congratulate Mr. Henry Garten, of Bradfordsville, on winning the nomination for sheriff of Marion county. That he will make an ideal one none who know his true worth will doubt.
MR. G. A. MCROBERTS, formerly of this place, had the misfortune to lose the index finger of his right hand while working with a piece of machinery in his box factory at Covington. The finger next to it was badly lacerated.
THE opening of John P. Jones was largely attended and the beautiful things displayed were highly complimented. The good taste of Mr. Jones and his salesladies was the subject of much comment by the hundreds of ladies who were present.
TOM STRINGER, a farm hand working for H. J. Darst, lost control of the team he was driving on their becoming badly frightened, and they ran away striking some obstruction, breaking the neck of one of the horses and crippling the other so as to render him unfit for use.
WE do not give it as a matter of news to our Lincoln county readers for they have heard scarcely anything else for months, but for the benefit of our "foreign" patrons we will state that a democratic primary will be held in this county next Saturday and the prospects are that it will be red-hot. There are several races which even a Philadelphia lawyer would have a hard time in sorting the result.

Try for Health

223 South Peoria St.,
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption.
It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui.
I told her I had not and she brought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Wine of Cardui

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?

ing you for past favors, I am, yours,

I desire to sell my farm of 245 acres on the Hustonville and Hustonville pikes. The farm

To The Democrats of Lincoln County.

As you know, I am a candidate for shortly, subject to your action, I desire to say that I have not, and will not under any circumstances, enter into any combination of any kind with any person. Being an ardent democrat, I do not believe in pools, trusts and combinations and I shall hold this race alone.

My record as an officer is well known and I am willing to allow my fitness for the position to be judged by the manner in which I conducted the office during the term that I held it. I am also willing for you to say whether I have earned this much reward by the service I have rendered my party since boy-hood. I therefore appeal to you to remember me on the day of the primary election. If fitness for the position and devotion to the party, evidenced by long and hard work for it, merits any reward, I feel sure that I will receive the benefit of your suffrage, for which I will be very thankful and if elected I promise, as heretofore, to my best ability, fill the office in an acceptable manner.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by all

To The Democracy of Lincoln County.

The democratic primary is now an approaching a close, and I feel it my duty to make this last appeal to the democracy of the county. The party has always obtained the best results by scattering the ticket. The "Knobs" usually cast about 500 democratic votes, loyal like myself. I feel warranted in stating that my nomination, on account of my locality, would be of no disadvantage to the ticket in the final election. Ten years since our party was defeated by the republicans, owing to an oversight in scattering the ticket as it should be done. At the following election the democratic committee, of which I had the honor to be a member, formulated a ticket by an equal distribution of candidates from every cardinal part of the county, and these candidates at the following final election routed the common enemy by an overwhelming defeat and snatched from the hands of the republicans the reins of affairs in the county government.

And furthermore I am not a party to any combination. I entered this race on my own personal merits and loyalty as a true democrat. In the first place I object to and am against combinations of every kind and nature, because I feel that a man should make, and is honestly bound to make a race for any office on his merits alone, and not upon the merits of any other man. Secondly, the paramount issue of National democracy is opposed to the combinations of dis-cance. Why then should any one seek a nomination at the hands of democracy, do so by a combination? In other words, form a "VOTE-CATCHING TRUST" to the disadvantage of a loyal democrat who is presenting to the voters of the good county of Lincoln his candidacy upon his record as a democrat who has at all times followed the precepts of his party and aided victory in perching upon her banner.

I will not ask you to recollect any further than the last general election held in our county, on Nov. 8 of this year, the splendid result given by the south end of Lincoln, my home and my "stamping ground." The county was reported and believed to have gone 34 votes on the side of the republicans until my part of the county had reported her excellent majority, which placed the county back in line to the "good old time" of democracy. And to the citizens of this, my county, I take the opportunity to say that if I am nominated as the democratic candidate for sheriff, which I firmly believe I will be, nothing on my part shall be omitted at the final election next November to help carry the county and lend my assistance to all the other candidates, and I feel determined in the final election it is my desire and intention to treat every one, both democrat and republican, in a fair and impartial way, as is due to every citizen of our county. Respectfully, W. L. McCARTY.
